

TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER AND INNOVATION CROSS-INDUSTRY CONFERENCE CALL FOR CONFERENCE RESEARCH PAPERS

Deadline (extended) - AUGUST 30, 2013

www.questreach.com

Aim of the TTI Conference:

Aim of the conference is to discuss theoretical issues and practical experience in technology transfer and innovation through various industry clusters.

The conference brings together the administrators, managers, researchers and professional from high schools, research think tanks, business companies, governmental structures and nongovernmental institutions to provide comprehensive platform to share ideas and experiences.

Thematic areas of TTI Conference:

The Conference covers various areas as Mechanical engineering and new materials; Transportation technologies; Biotechnology and medical technology; Nanotechnology; Ecology and environment; Information technology; Food industry; Textiles; Energy and renewable energy resources.

The following thematic sections form the focus areas of research and practical insights:

- Technology and innovation policy framework
- Academic and industry innovation case studies
- Design and models of technology transfer. Stakeholders
- Academic-based technology transfer
- Technology transfer and regional economy
- SME and technology transfer potential

Other thematic areas and topics relevant to the field of conference are welcome.

Structure and format of papers:

Submission format can be downloaded on this website.

The volume of paper should be at least 4 pages, but not exceeding 15 pages of A4 format. Articles must be written on English. Papers should be printed in MS Word, Time New Roman font (size 12), with 1.5 interval. Tables and pictures must be handled with MS Word drawing tools and supported by source references.

Literature references should be placed in the end of paper and represented in required form. Papers should be provided by the following requisites:

- Name of paper; List of keywords
- Summary in the beginning (a maximum of 150 words).
- References in required form
- At the end of paper author should precisely specify the following: first name and surname; scientific degree; country of citizenship; affiliated with a given author a research or other organization (company); e-mails (main and alternative); phones with codes (office and mobile); the convenient detailed post address, on which author wishes to receive the publication after printing.

Given publications should have research character and must be based on principles of scientific and a professional etiquette. The papers are subject for peer-review process by editorial and independent experts.

Selection of papers and publication fee:

First, the selected papers will be recommended to publish by the Conference Program Committee. After this, the papers will undergo peer-review process. Only passed the peer-review procedure articles will be included to the Conference proceedings publication. Delegates are provided with free publication fee option.

Non delegates can access the conference publication opportunity under distance correspondence conference (DCC) model. Accepted article publication fee for non-delegate is 150 Euro, due to pay only after accepting the paper. Average delivery cost to provide the main author with hard copy makes 10 Euro.

Paper submission deadline:

Electronic copies of paper must be sent to: info@questreach.com cc: tti@pradec.eu no later than (August 30), 2013.